FIRST GROWTH...

Leaving an acclaimed career in fine art, Luca Sanjust embarked on a hermitage to Bordeaux, in search of inspiration amid the vineyards and wineries of the storied region.

Convinced of his land's potential for the grape, Luca returned home to Tuscany and replanted his best vineyards to Merlot, determined to employ all he had learned abroad in pursuit of a new direction in Italian winemaking.

GRAND COUP...

Since then, Luca's wines have earned more than 27 ratings of 90 pts and higher from Wine Spectator - 10 "Classic" ratings of 95-98 pts - and comparisons to the legendary Château Pétrus.

They are adored by collectors around the world for their classic, rarified, utterly unique character.

Luca's vision and commitment to excellence have lifted Petrolo from humble beginnings to the very top of the wine world.
