Step Rd, Langhorne Creek, Australia

www.steprd.com/vineyard.htm

Step Rd has been consistently making a diverse range of wines in Langhorne Creek for years. From their South Australian "First Step" brand to their Reserve Estate Labels; Step Rd continues to over deliver and offers great value in the bottle vintage after vintage.

Beresford, Mc Laren Vale

www.beresfordwines.com.au

"The winemaking is very much hands on for the estate's principals, working closely with the growers, ensuring the vines stay healthy, and develop a plethora of desirable fruit characters. Rigorous selection from each vineyard for it's distinctive flavor profile contributes to the uniqueness and complexity of the finished wine."

Vina Casa Marin, San Antonio Valley, Chile

www.casamarin.cl

"Maria Luz Marin, Chile's first and most prominent female vigneron, has single-handedly put together this small gem of a winery in cool-climate San Antonio, just a few kilometers from the Pacific Ocean. Her wines are a reflection of her vision and as individualistic as anything produced in Chile." Wine Advocate's Jay Miller

Neyen de Apalta, Colchagua, Chile www.neyen.cl

The Neyen de Apalta winery is the perfect blend of tradition and modernity. The Carmenère and Cabernet Sauvignon vines planted in 1890 now produce excellent fruit due to their deep roots and natural balance. Neyen produces only one wine that considered as one of Chile's top Icon Wines. In the native Mapudungun language, Neyen means "spirit," and it is the spirit of Apalta that they are dedicated to capturing in each vintage.

J&J Eger Wine Co, Hungary

Canadian Master Sommelier, John Szabos's 2006 "Sik hegý" Single vineyard Kekfrancos has just arrived in Canada for the first time. It's classic Kékfrancos with crunchy black fruit and peppery spice. The tannins are fine and dusty (no press juice, only free-run) and acid is vibrant. Think of good quality Dolcetto - a highly versatile food wine.

Domaine de la Bastide Saint Dominique, France

www.bastide-st-dominique.com

"This estate is well-worth following, especially for their top cuvee from the sandy soils of Pignan, near Rayas. Most consumers have not yet caught on to the quality of their wines (including their Cotes du Rhones), so prices remain reasonable." Robert Parker

A to Z Wine Works, Oregon USA

www.atozwineworks.com

Founded in 2002, the company is Oregon's fastest growing winery. The business model is simple: to produce and market Oregon's best wine values by concentrating on our core competencies of acquisition, blending and marketing.

Heron Hill Winery www.heronhill.com

Heron Hill Winery is nestled into a hill overlooking scenic Keuka Lake in New York's Finger Lakes region. For over 30 years the winery has set the highest standards for wine quality, customer satisfaction and tasting room experience.

Riecini, Tuscany www.riecine.it

Located in the heart of Chianti, Riecini takes its place among the finest vineyards in all of Italy and continues to progress as a classic winery. They produce outstanding small lots of Chianti, Chianti Classico and IGT Super Tuscans.

GAIA Wines, Greece www.gaia-wines.gr

Founded in 1994 by Lean Karatsalos, Gaia is by far one of the most accredited producers of fine wines in Greece. "This highly regarded winery is famous for Agiorgitiko in Nemea, but one of its trademark brands is also Thalassitis, a remarkably austere Assyrtiko bottling." Wine Advocate
